

*"God wants me to be a good person." "God wants me to be happy." "God needs us." "God is there for us whenever we need him." We hear a lot of things about God that sound true, but are they really true? And how can we know? In this series we'll talk about some common ideas about God and then look at the Bible to find the deeper, better truth behind them.*

God Wants My Whole Life

This Week

Does God want you to be a good person? Anyone can have good morals, but disciples are called to something more. God doesn't just want us to be good, God wants us to be faithful.

Scripture

"I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me." - Galatians 2:20

Bottom Line

God doesn't call us to be good, he calls us to be faithful.

Questions

- Read Hebrews 11 together. This chapter talks about "Heroes of the Faith". What are the common traits of these people? How are they different? Were they all "good"?
- What is the difference between being good and being faithful?
- What does faith require from you that being good does not?
- If someone added you to the passage, what would it say? Complete the phrase "By faith _____ did _____."

Parent Discussion Point

Talk about a time that your family has made a decision to be radically faithful.
