

*"God wants me to be a good person." "God wants me to be happy." "God needs us." "God is there for us whenever we need him." We hear a lot of things about God that sound true, but are they really true? And how can we know? In this series we'll talk about some common ideas about God and then look at the Bible to find the deeper, better truth behind them.*

God Wants My Whole Life

This Week

God is always there for us, but is He only there when we call on Him? God doesn't just want to be there for you on Sundays or when you're in trouble, He wants to invade every part of your life,

Scripture

"And Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, 'You lack one thing: go, sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.' Disheartened by the saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions." - Mark 10:17-27

Bottom Line

God doesn't want to be a part of your life, He wants your whole life.

Questions

- If you think of your life as a pie, what are the different pieces? Are there parts of your life that don't include God? Why is He not welcome there?
- What might happen if you let God take your whole life?
- What door is God calling you to open and what would that take?
- If you gave God your whole life, what would you lose and what would you gain?

Parent Discussion Point

Is there an area of your life as a family that you need to invite God to be a part of?
